Eastern Hills High
Fort Worth, Texas

"Highlander spirit is decorating cars and the school before football games. It's wearing blue on Friday to the pep rally that almost lifts the roof off the school. It means holding your finger up after a game even if we lose."

— Teresa McKay, Marching Band

"The Highlanders are one, even though we each have our different goals and lives to live each day. We all strive for the best in what we do here. Excitement rings through the halls on the day of a football game. The pep rallies are loud and encouraging. When we hear the fight song and Alma Mater it gives us pride in what we are and makes us proud to be from Eastern Hills."

— Cayce Garrett, Drum Major

"Highlander spirit is more than pompons, yelling, marches and winning. It is a blending of emotion and desire for a common purpose. Highlander spirit involves people working together — in a winning or in a losing effort — with total determination and pride."

— Jerre Miller, Senior Counselor

Spirited

"We are spirited with devotion and enthusiasm. No matter how great a loss our team has, there is always that special touch of spirit in each individual's heart that just can't be bottled up. Every Highlander has faith which arouses that feeling of wanting to show spirit."

— Roseann Balik,
Varsity Cheerleader

". . . because we have pride enough to hold ourselves up through thick and thin. Courage to challenge the best. And poise to do it with ease. With the desire to win and be #1 with spirit to back it."

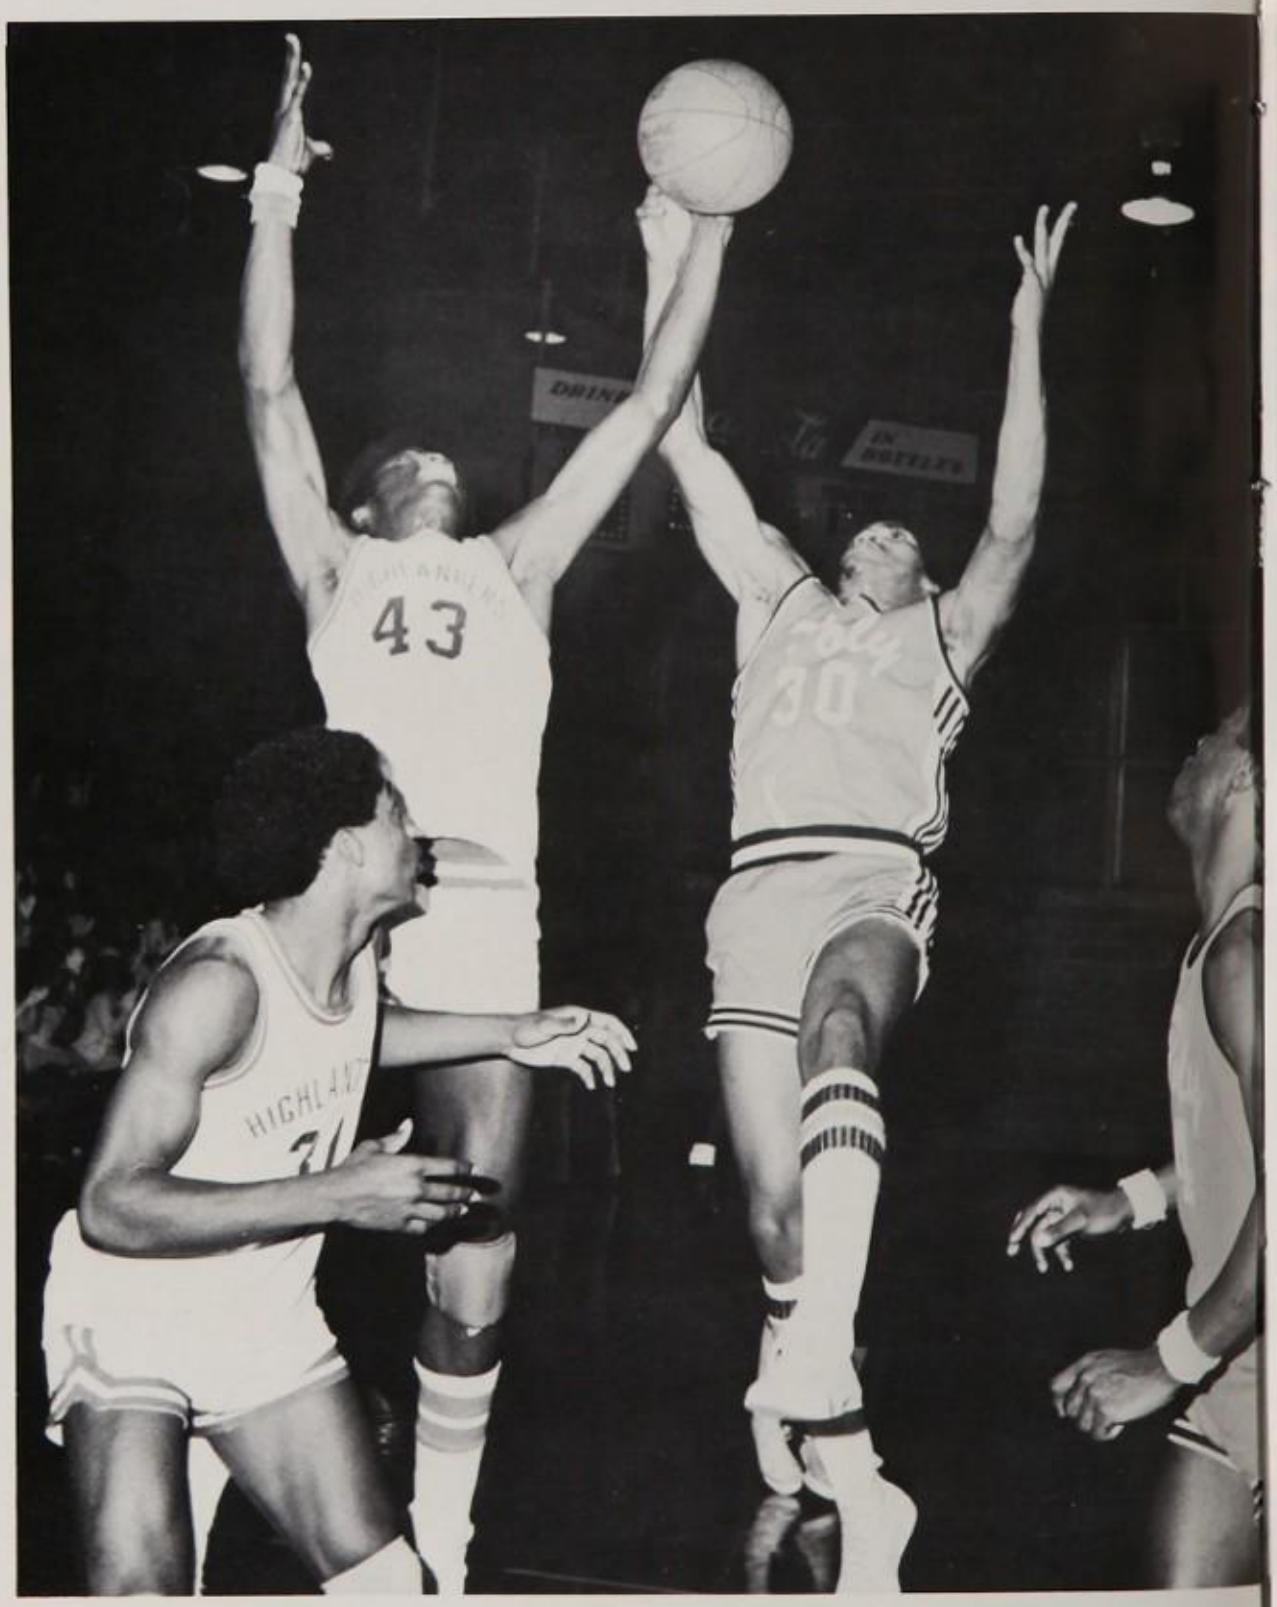
— Kelly Ford, Varsity Football Player

". . . because it gives an athlete the chance to represent her school as well as herself. As a member of a team, an athlete learns of pain and discomfort. Most of all, she learns self-discipline, and that she can do anything if she works hard at it and wants to do it badly enough."

— Janet Peschel, Track Team Member

"Nearly everyone in our student body is involved in sports, either as participants or as loyal and enthusiastic spectators. When an athlete looks up into the stands and sees the people who came to encourage the team to win, it motivates him to do his very best and bring home a victory for the Highlanders."

— Kevin Greene



"Highlanders are athletic in every sense of the word. Our competitiveness reaches far above that of the average high school student. We have proven this many times with our individual as well as team efforts. An athlete of Eastern Hills is not somebody who wants to show off; he wants to win."

— Linda Marshall, Swim Team Member

Athletic

"Behind the scenes, away from the glory and spectacle of our school contests, are the students who run laps in bad weather, and those who stay after school hours to practice to bring home a victory for their team. Sports bring unity, laughter, and a kindred spirit. Sports are here to stay."
— Jackie Morgan, Track Team

"As athletes at Eastern Hills, we are taught to be good losers but not to like losing. Winning at Eastern Hills is a goal we always try to reach. Whenever we line up against other teams, though we may not always be better, the opponent knows whatever the outcome of the contest, he can never put down a Highlander."
— Russell Labhart, Varsity Football

"Students are given the chance to 'let their creativity go' on the Tartan staff. People learn through experience; on the Tartan staff, by each member contributing his own creative ability, we learn. This creative ability is not only writing for the paper, but the photography, artwork, layouts, and the general printing of a newspaper."

— Barbie Miers, Tartan Business Editor

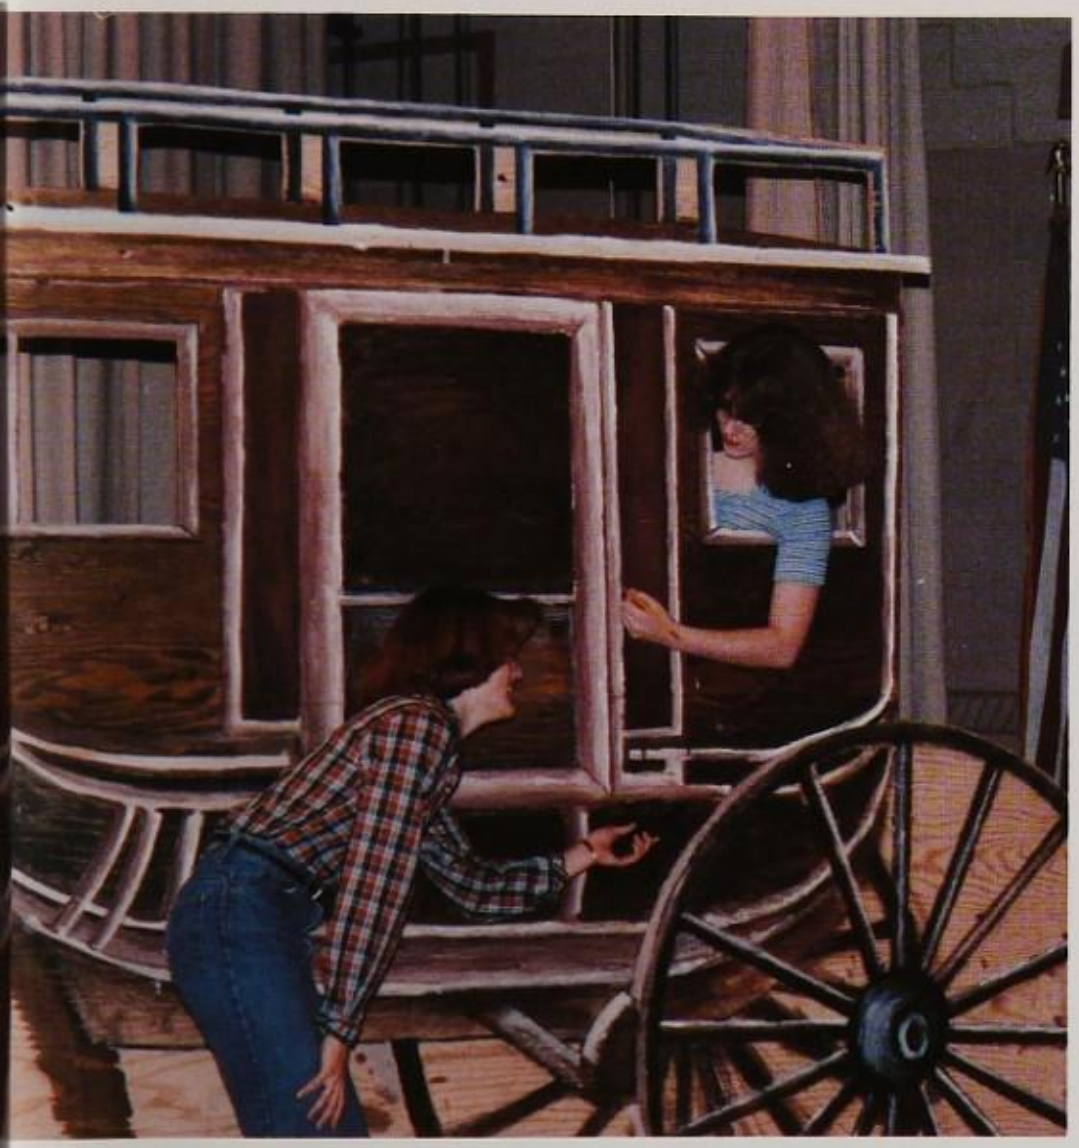
"What does creative exactly mean? Webster gives a one-word definition — Constructive. But that one word made me realize that a person does not have to paint a masterpiece or sculpt a Michelangelo to be creative. He simply has to build something from his own imagination."

— Betty Burkhart,
Set Designer, 1979 Big 'E'

"Creativity . . . how can we use it to fulfill our goals? Every one of us has a purpose in life — a special talent that we can share. My past four years at Eastern Hills have given me a chance to grow and develop my creativity in many wonderful ways. Do not be afraid to show the world that you are special, that you are significant. Even when it seems that you have run as far and as fast and as long as you possibly could ever imagine, you have only begun to express the talent waiting to be shared with others."

— Melinda Barnes, Miss Big 'E' and Fling Winner

Creative



"It must not be overlooked that to be an intelligent person is not necessarily to be an "intellectual". We often stereotype the "A" student unfairly. To be intelligent goes beyond academic achievement. It means learning to recognize and deal with life's obstacles."

— Sallie Burton, Faculty

"The application of acquired knowledge to life's challenges is the fruit of learning."

— Gail Latta,
Summa Cum Laude

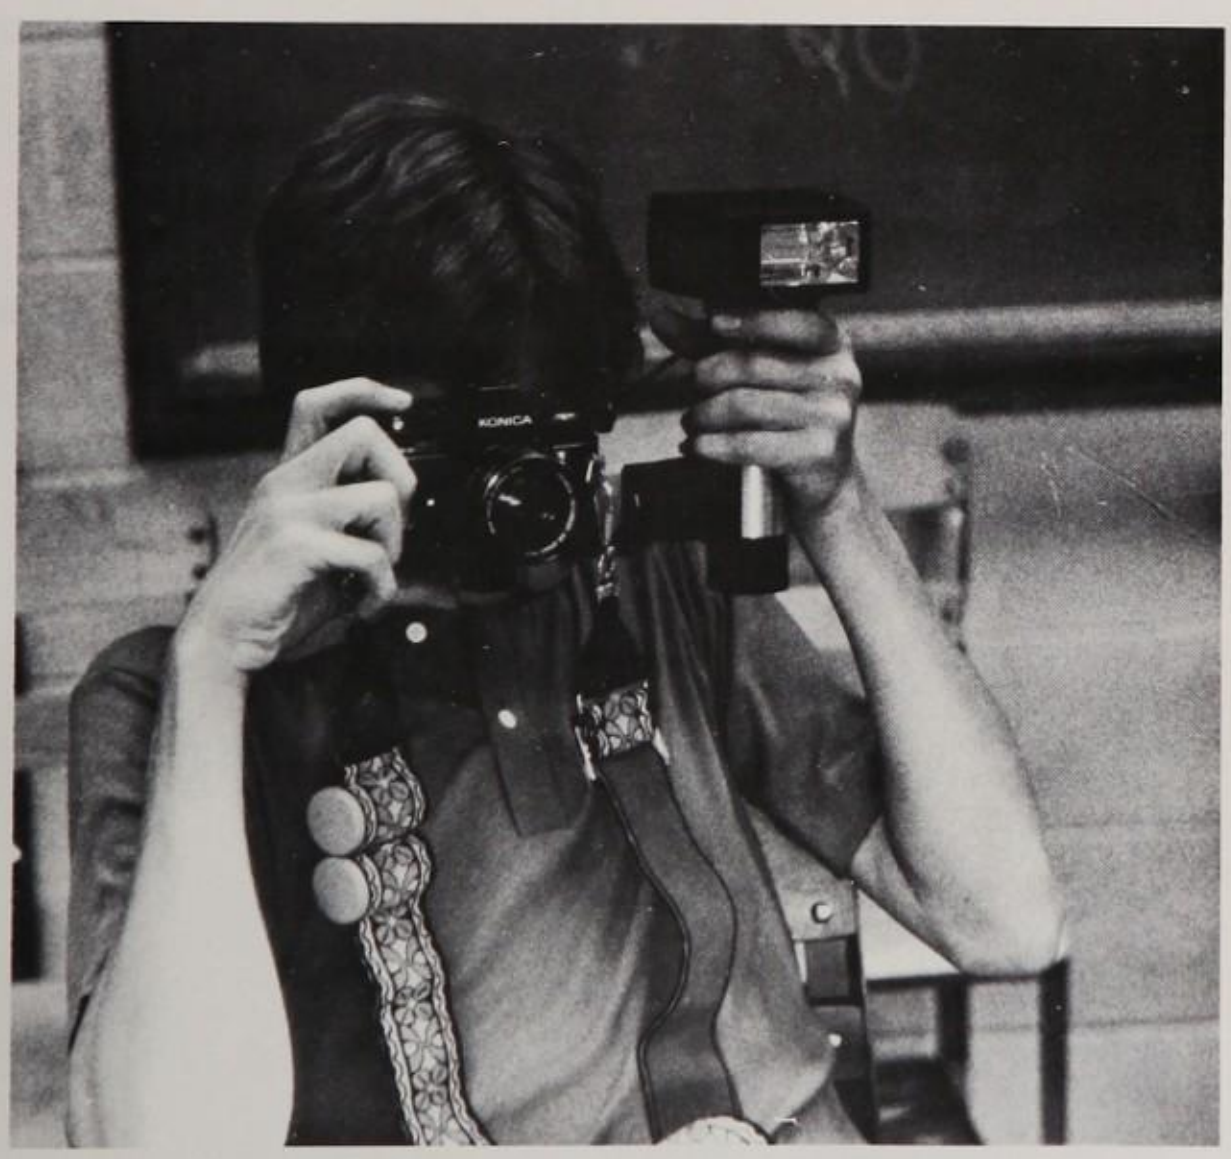
"Intelligence is knowledge, common sense and acceptance of responsibility. I believe that all Highlanders in their own way want to and try to meet this standard."

— Marla Keene, Freshman

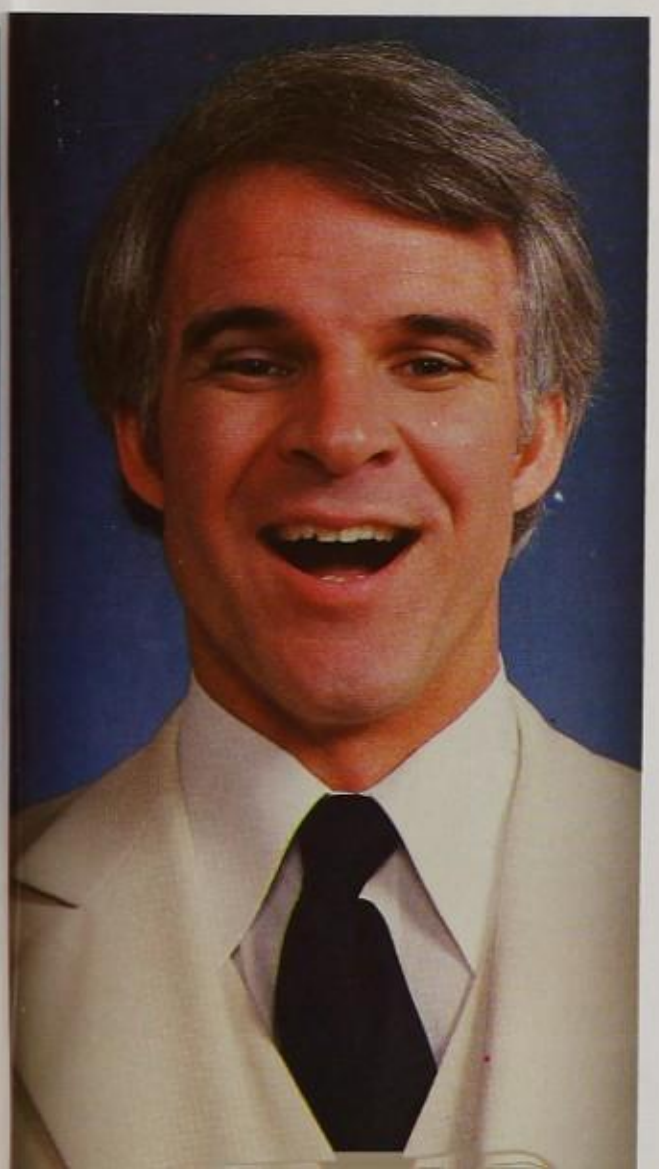
"Hills provides the perfect atmosphere where teaching and learning come together. As we know that doubting is an essential condition in pursuing the truth, this doubt often increases our intelligence because it gives us a two-way look at ourselves and allows us to realize our knowledge from the inside out."

— Sherman Allen,
Student Body President

Intelligent



Wild & Crazy



"I'm just one wild and crazy guy!"

— Steve Martin,
Famous Comedian

"I am fixing to thrive down, but first the buckethead is grindin' on the nerves the worst!"

— Cindy Coates, Ramblin' Gal

"We'll work on it!"

— Jay Irby, in the 1979
Big 'E'

DON'T TOUCH MY TUTS
DON'T TOUCH MY TUTS
DON'T TOUCH MY TUTS

"We have seen, through our work on the annual staff and our four years at Eastern Hills, that everyone is unique and has his own individual qualities. Our student body is composed of over 2000 persons who are brought together to learn and grow. All of our experiences are ones which we will learn from as we look back on them. Our knowledge will encompass common sense, "book learning," and dealing with people. When we separate in years to come, we will look back on these years and realize the things that make our school and its students The Greatest."

Spirit Rises in the Fall

Walls and doors in the big room were a major topic in beginning-of-school conversation.

Ninth graders got their first taste of eighty minute classes, algebra, and exemption plans. The English Department sponsored an assembly program featuring Jack Warren (Susan Hotard's student teacher).

Highlanders donned costumes and painted their faces for both the "Ugliest Kid on Campus" contest (sponsored by the Home Ec department) and Halloween Day.

(1) Freshmen Vincent Wagner, Kathy Hartung, Beth Henson, and D'Ann Liles learn that it takes four of them to work an algebra problem. (2) "I wonder why my date for lunch didn't show up," muses Larry Gaines. (3) Participants in the "Big U" beauty pageant pose for a group shot.

(1) Robyn Sitton wanted to be a football official, but she was only a freshman. (2) "I sure hope the football games are more exciting than this silly Meet the Highlanders night," think the members of the J.V. football team. (3) This year Brent McClure served as official Varsity cake-holder. (4) Jack Warren's performance raised money for the English department.

(1) The 1978 Homecoming Court: Roseann Balik, DeeAnn Kreiger, Karen Zinsser, Queen Cynthia Edwards, Susan Blackwell, and Clara Minneweather. (2) Cynthia Edwards expresses her joy at being selected Homecoming Queen. (3) Senior spirit reigns at the Homecoming pep rally as Stewart Sherrill accepts the spirit stick for his class.

Cynthia Crowned Queen of Hills

The possibility of a parade for Eastern Hills seemed unreal. With cooperation between students and the community, the first Homecoming parade was a huge success.

Juniors showed spirit by wearing funny sunglasses.

A Highlander victory saluted Homecoming Queen Cynthia Edwards and capped the week's activities.

(1) Robert Kelley blows notes for victory. (2) Majorettes and cheerleaders spread the spirit during the pep rally. (3) Craig DeArman gets ready to throw a long one as Keith Gist looks on. (4) Everyone decorated their cars for the big game.

(1) Kimeta Carter demonstrates perfect balance and wins Honorable Mention. (2) Melinda Barnes, singing "You Don't Send Me Flowers," is the winner of the Highlander Fling. (3) Joni Bean performs vivaciously with Susan Blackwell (not pictured). (4) "Ladies and Gentlemen, the World Famous Highlander Fling!" bellows Emcee Jay Irby.

Greatest Show at Hills

With new producer Bonnie Bailey and Ringmaster Jay Irby as emcee, the Highlander Fling was packed with talent and showmanship.

Melinda Barnes won the talent competition with her piano playing and singing. Second place was awarded to singer Duayne Price. Piano player Russell Tapp and dance duo Cynthia Hill and Melinda Montgomery tied for third place. Kimeta Carter took the Honorable Mention Award with her floor routine.

(1) Dwayne Price wows the ladies and the judges. (2) The clown (Paula Wright) and the strongman (Stewart Sherril) enliven the opening number. (3) Andrew Woods and Reginald Knox jam during the Fling. (4) Cynthia Hill dazzles the audience.

Seniors Party at Doll Show

Being Santa's children is often not easy. Sometimes birthdays are forgotten. But this year Santa (Keith Boyd) out did himself. He invited at least one hundred enthusiastic guys to help his lovely daughters (Carol Higgins and Roberta Sickles) celebrate their birthdays.

From wild and crazy King Tut Dolls to the more refined Carmen Miranda Dolls, the Lassie sponsored Doll Show entertained the audience and raised money to help people in need. Several faculty members added their own personal touches as they introduced the acts.

(1) Randy Lemons and Mark Davidson are real momma's babies at heart. (2) Tut Doll Allen Ratliff struts his stuff. (3) The Baby Lockets freak out in the Highlander Doll Show.

(1) Mr. Plemons says, "I sure do like these new five-year underarm deodorant pads!" (2) Mrs. Cox introduces the next act to Santa (Keith Boyd) and his helpers (Roberta Sickles and Carol Higgins). (3) The Rainbow Dolls demonstrate new ballet steps. (4) Mr. Claus (Keith Boyd) sings "Ho, Ho, Ho! and Merry Christmas to all the Highlanders!"

(1) "Hold on there, Mr. City Slicker!" hollers Jay Irby to emcee Stewart Sherrill. (2) Susan Stovall beams after being crowned Miss Big "E" of 1979.

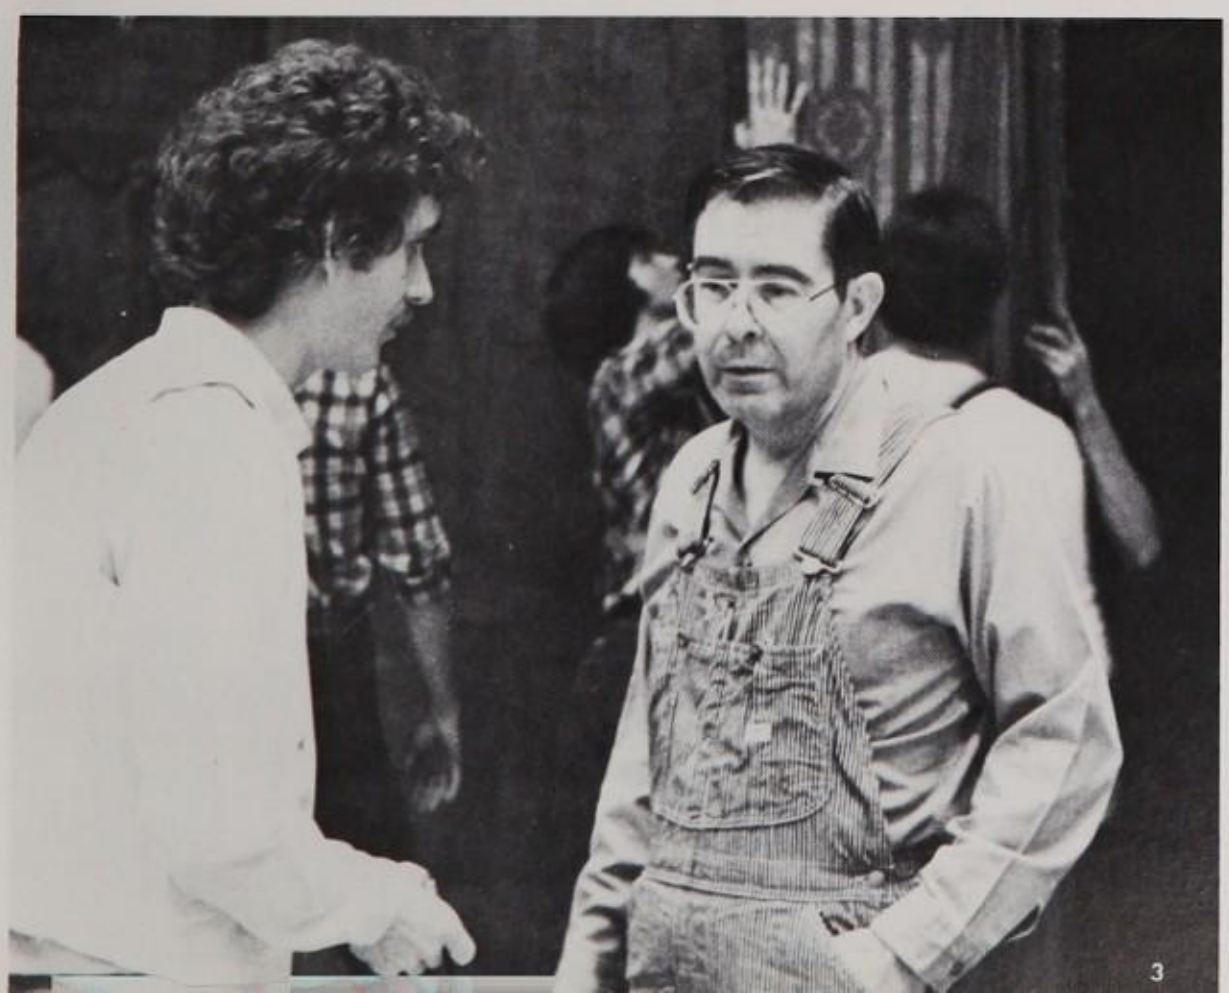
(3) Mike Baldock escorts Karen Zinsser during evening gown competition. (4) Second runner-up Shannon McMahon is the youngest and one of the most talented members of the cast.

There's a Coach Comin' in

A swift-talking city slicker attempted to match twenty lovely girls to twenty unrefined miners and loggers. The result was Big "E" 1979. Director Guy Stroman was assisted by Bonnie Bailey, Kenneth Sisserson, and Carol Cohen.

Winning the competition was Susan Stovall. Runners-Up were Missy Day, Shannon McMahon, Leah Buchanan, and Cayce Garrett.

Roseann Balik was voted Miss Congeniality.



(1) "We're happy as an ox without a yoke," sigh Clay Gilmer and Ross Ryan. (2) Leah Buchanan plays "An American in Paris." (3) "I don't think I can make it until the show without either Draino or razor blades!" pleads Guy Stroman to Coach Sisserson.

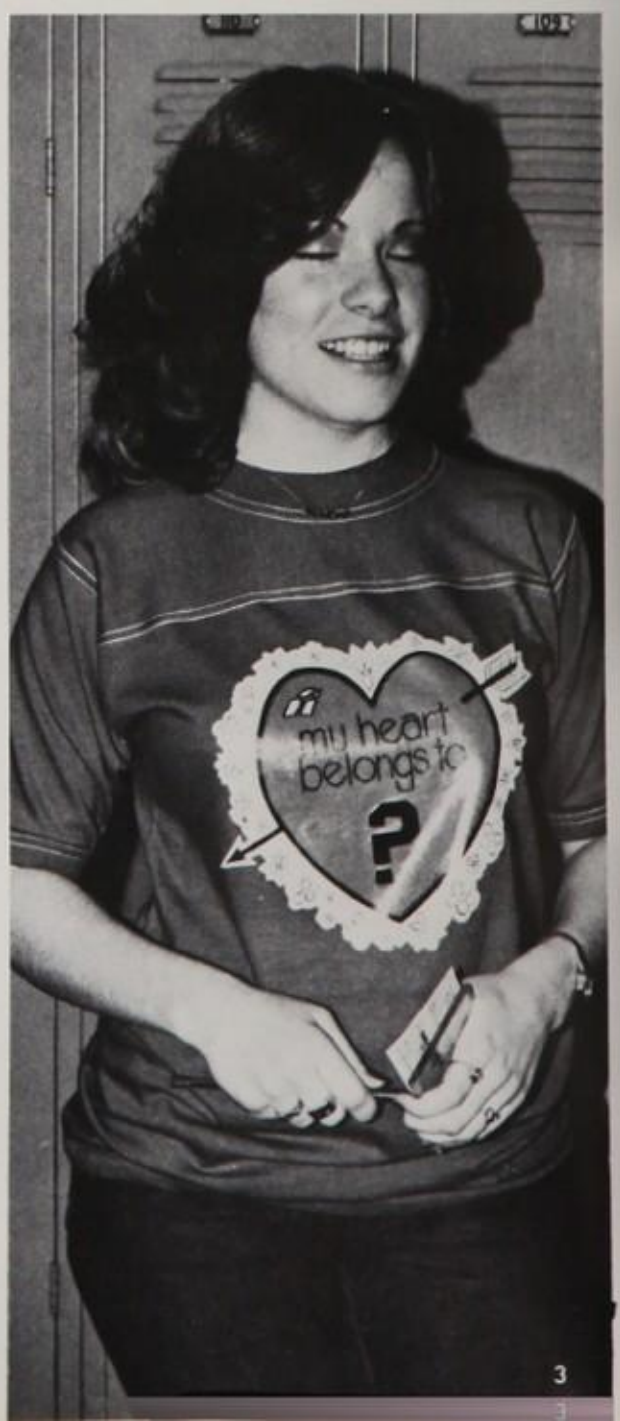
Activities Cure Spring Fever

In the spring, students are usually becoming tired of school. But many activities helped to keep people from sleepwalking through the last few weeks of the year.

One of the highlights of the year was the Senior Banquet and Prom. Special dress-up days, different events, and projects helped to enliven the everyday life at Eastern Hills.

(1) Dinner at the prom at the Six Flags' Inn was quite delicious. (2) Karen Wynn throws the football in the Super Stars Competition as Macho Man Robin Gray plays the backfield. (3) Jana Tomlin tries to find out who her heart really belongs to on Valentine's Day.



(1) Prommie Date, Ross Ryan, Katye Scarborough, Chris Coleman, Roxanne Sagen, and Keith Boyd arrive at the Prom in their chauffeured limousine. (2) DeLois Lane pushes her favorite product during the mock commercials presented by the sophomore English classes. (3) Linda Frye and Dianna McCans stop for a pic on Twin Day. (4) Kathy Conley has the distinction of having married the most husbands on Sadie Hawkins Day. (5) Brad Crawford and Mrs. Bridges boogie at the Prom.

(1) Vice-Principal George Mitcham aids the injured Lisa Hill off the field. (2) Talana Mefford is the Most Valuable Player of the game. (3) "Why am I always on the bottom?" asks Clay Gilmer of Mark Davidson. (4) Russell Labhart shows his coaching expertise to Erin McKenna, Karen Wortham, Esther Lewis, Roberta Sickles, and Ann LeBaron.

Powder Puff Is Tuff Stuff

The fact that only one girl was injured during the game proved that the members of the Class of '79 really do love each other.

The 1979 Powder Puff Game was held on May 9 at Handley Field. The evening was filled with the glamour of the all male, three person, semi-risqué Drill Team. The stands were also thrilled with the presence and the gaiety of the new cheerleaders.

Mike Baldock was crowned our very own Powder Puff King. The Student Council sponsored this annual event.

(1) Janet Peschel, Roxanne Sagen, Cynthia Edwards, and Talana Mefford gaze with interest at the referee Raymond Miller as he flips the coin. (2) Powerhouse Esther Lewis fights her way down the field. (3) "Stay under the lights so I can make good movies!" directs Coach Mark Daniel to Wende Hoffman and Toma Lee.

When Student Body President Sherman Allen was asked the purpose and goals of the student council, he answered, "The student council should be an organization with the purpose of organizing a coordinated effort between students, teachers, and administrators in the school. In order to achieve any worthwhile goal, main emphasis must be placed upon getting participation from every sector within the school. I have been overwhelmed by everyone's help and feel this goal has been achieved."

The Student Council of 78-79 consisted of 33 members. Sponsors for Student Council were Mr. Leon Mitchell and Ms. Patricia Brown.

Several members attended the National Student Council Convention, the State Convention in San Antonio, and the National Association of Student Councils (NASC) in Florida. For the first time, the EHHS student council sponsored a workshop at TCJC Northwest Campus. Guests from FWISD, UTA, Community Churches, and Civic Groups in the area attended the workshop.

The Student Council sponsored numerous events during the year. Among the activities were Howdy Dollar Day, the first EHHS Homecoming parade, trash can painting project, the Aluminum Can Dance, the film "Champions," Sadie Hawkins Day, and the Homecoming Spirit Chain.

Mr. Charles Watts, band director, wished that there was more emphasis placed on the band program. The program at Hills has proven itself by winning many awards, and deserves more public support.

Band Members attended camps at Texas Tech and East Texas State. Drum majors and majorettes attended a camp at UT at Arlington.

The Show Choir was a new concept for the Choraliers. Costumes, band music, props, lighting, and dancing or special movements enhanced the performances.

The 60-member choir was asked by the President of Mexico to perform at the Coral de Navidad. The group was the only high school choir in the United States. They were named "Ambassadors of Good Will" by the Governor of Texas. In order to raise money for the Mexico Trip and other activities, the choir sponsored several sales promotions. The group also performed at Golden Gloves, and Octoberfest The Choraliers did not charge admission, but took contributions.

Time, energy, and talent were required of all members and obviously each member met those requirements. Everywhere the students performed, they received a standing ovation.

With croppers attached firmly to their heads and always answering questions about mug shots, the 1979 Clan Staff consisted of thirty members, with Sharon Ramsey and Mark Miller as co-editors and Teresa Mobley-McDuffie as advisor.

Mark and Sharon proved their leadership qualities while working toward several awards at camp. The workshop was held last summer at S.M.U. The editors planned the format of the 1979 Clan and designed the cover. They received the Honorable Mention Award in overall competition.

The goal of the 1979 staff was to make the Clan a memorable record of the events of the past year at Eastern Hills.

New in the 1979 Clan were quotes from various students in the opening section. The students were not only represented in the yearbook by their pictures, but also by their words.

(1) "I was in the Crest Test in 1975 — can't you tell?" boasts advisor "Pooh" McDuffie. (2) "Right now? Oh, I'm cleaning my bathroom bowl!" exclaims Cindy Holley.

Kathryn Helbert and Sandy Sloan were Tartan staff editors for the 78-79 school year. Seven other members plus the new sponsor, Mr. Christopher Dills completed the Staff.

Mr. Dills stated that journalism class is a lab rather than an ordinary class.

Students gained experience rather than earning a profit from the production of the magazine.

New this year was the magazine format compared to last year's newspaper style. The newspaper covered current news, whereas, the magazine covered features about people and other points of interest.

The Tartan Staff attended the ILPC (Interscholastic League Press Conference) where they attended seminars and were graded on their magazine.

To foster friendships among members and to perform useful tasks for others was the goal of the Office Education Association.

The organization held social meetings once a month. Covered-dish dinners, parties, picnics, dances, and ice skating were some of the group activities.

Members stuffed Christmas stockings for children at an orphanage and provided a luncheon for the teachers. These two efforts served as the club's service projects.

Several students were involved in Regional and State contests, in which the students demonstrated various office skills.

Club Advisers were Mrs. Nella Harlin and Mrs. Joyce Vardeman.

Basketball, Best in Years

Coach Bill Mann had hopes of breaking .500 ball play this year. His wishes were fulfilled when his ball club turned in a 15-13 season record.

Starters Arron Duncan, Robin Grays, and Elliott Nourvle led the Highlanders. From the bench, Anthony Russell and Tim Frank added to Hills' depth.

Coach Mann said, "Unlike most athletic teams which have a great deal of dissention, this team was always helping each other." The team enjoyed playing together and Coach Mann enjoyed coaching them.

With all but three players returning and a good year of experience, the future for basketball at Hills looks bright.

Have you heard the one about the South rising again? Well maybe not the South, but surely basketball at Eastern Hills is on the rise. This year's J.V. and Freshman Basketball teams both had excellent seasons. They surpassed many standing team records.

The J.V., agile and quick, tabulated a 9-18 record. The Freshman team, loaded with talent, dominated their district with aggressive play and finally turned in a record of 28-3. Despite a valiant effort, the Freshmen were defeated by Paschal in the city championship playoff.

Captain Cindy Harris was voted most valuable player in the Optimist Club Christmas Tournament played at Hills. Out of eight teams, the Highlanders were awarded a trophy for third place.

Coach Goff felt that the girls developed the fundamentals of basketball, which included individual techniques and game strategies and philosophy. With these skills, the girls' basketball team could be tough next year entering into UIL competition.

Turning in a time of 47.7 seconds, Melvin finished second in the 440 yard event at the State Track Meet. Next year, Melvin will have the chance to return to the State Meet and possibly become the third State Track Champion in the history of Eastern Hills.

Our tracksters finished fourth at the District Meet. Five competitors qualified for the Regional Meet. Those people were Chris Renfro, in the discus event; Melvin Bryant, in the 440 yard run; and the mile relay team. Members of the mile relay team were Adrian Spruell, Vincent Spruell (the only Freshman to letter in Varsity Track), Floyd Ester, and Melvin Bryant. Bryant went on to place second in the State Meet in the 440 yard run.

Losing only a few seniors, Coach Gerringer is looking forward to next year. The team is young and talented, and Gerringer hopes to bring the District Championship back to Eastern Hills.

Track Girls One Step Ahead

Coach Miriam Moore has always produced a fine girls' athletic program. The Eastern Hills' Girls' Track Team has gained a reputation as being one of the toughest teams in the state. This year's team lived up to its reputation. Girls finished well in both District and Regional Competition.

Outstanding tracksters included Junior Anita Whitley. She was high point person in the shot put, discus, long jump, hurdles, and the relay races in the District Meet. At the Regional Meet, Anita finished fifth in the shot put and the discus.

Co-Captain Linda Ockleberry threw the shot put and discus to qualify for the Regional Meet. She finished sixth in the shot put in the Regional Meet.

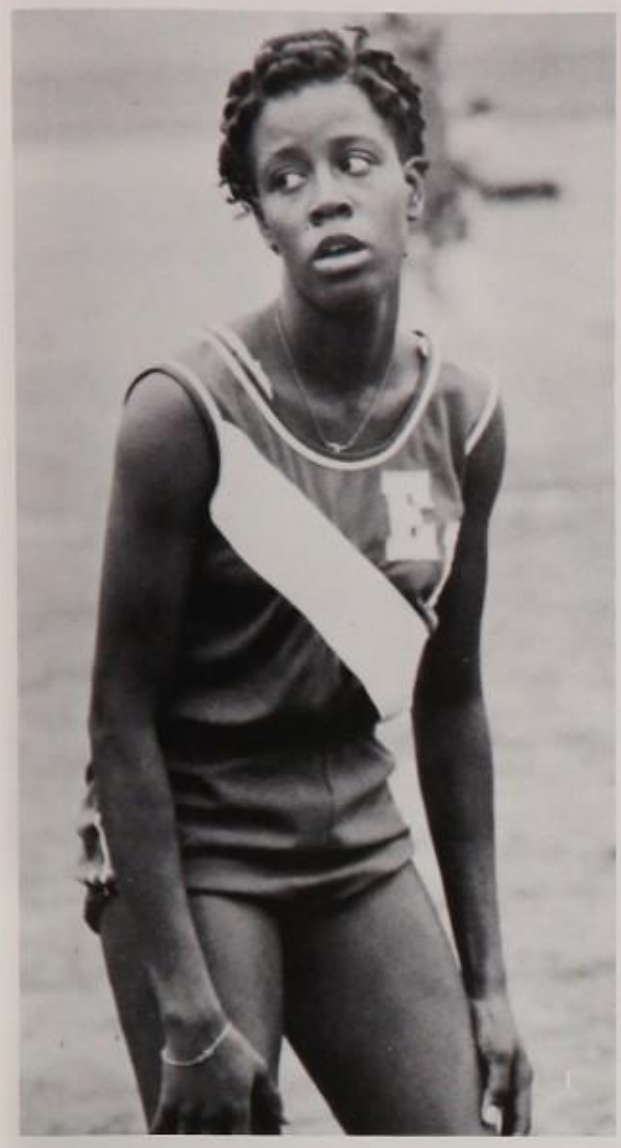
The 440 yard sprint relay team finished second in the District. The 880 yard relay team placed first in District. Both groups continued a long tradition of Highlander domination in these events in District 4A-7.

According to Coach Moore, this year's good team promises to be a dynamic team next year. The girls will have time to prepare and maintain the excellent reputation Eastern Hills has always had in Girls' Track.

(1) Starter Cynthia Edwards helps bring Hills a first place victory in the 880 yard relay during the District Meet. (2) Marilyn Waites and Nancy Porter stride together in the 880 yard run at the Southwest Meet.

(1) Co-captain Esther Lewis pushes herself into fifth place in District. (2) DeLois Lane congratulates Linda Hightower after anchoring the Spirit Relay. (3) Anita Whitley, high point person, runs the hurdles, demonstrating one of her many skills.

(1) Cynthia Edwards takes off after a perfect exchange with Linda Hightower. (2) Hazel Young moans with embarrassment as Linda Hightower sneers at her for running under the hurdles instead of over them. (3) Sophomore Jan Cannizarro thinks, "Oh, brother — one more lap to go!" as she runs the mile.



(1) "Goodness, I need some Gatorade!" pants Marilyn Waites. (2) Anita Whitley speeds away after Wanda Williams hands off the baton. (3) Milers Gwen Henderson and Esther Lewis await the starting gunshot to begin the mile.

(1) Annie Hyde watches her ball as it heads for the hole. (2) Golf Team Members: Jane Coffman, Sheila McDuff, Annie Hyde, Donna Whitten, Melinda Brock; (Kneeling) Ms. Janet Olson. (3) Steve Kirkpatrick looks intensely at his ball after his putt. (4) Sheila McDuff swings her way out of the sand trap. (5) Brad Crawford follows through on his drive.

For the first time in fifteen years, Arlington Heights was forced to abdicate the throne as the 4A Golf Champion to an experienced group of Highlander golfers.

In the race for the championship, five top players were Brad Crawford, Steve Kirkpatrick, David Richards, Mike Carter, and John Kinard.

The team won second at Woodcrest and Senior Brad Crawford finished second medalist overall. Steve Kirkpatrick finished second medalist in the Squaw Creek Tournament. The team finished third.

Steve Kirkpatrick was named Most Valuable Player.

(1) "Out of the sand, please," begs Mike Carter. (2) "I'm glad that I didn't curl my hair this morning," sighs Melinda Brock. Blue Dot Sparks Team

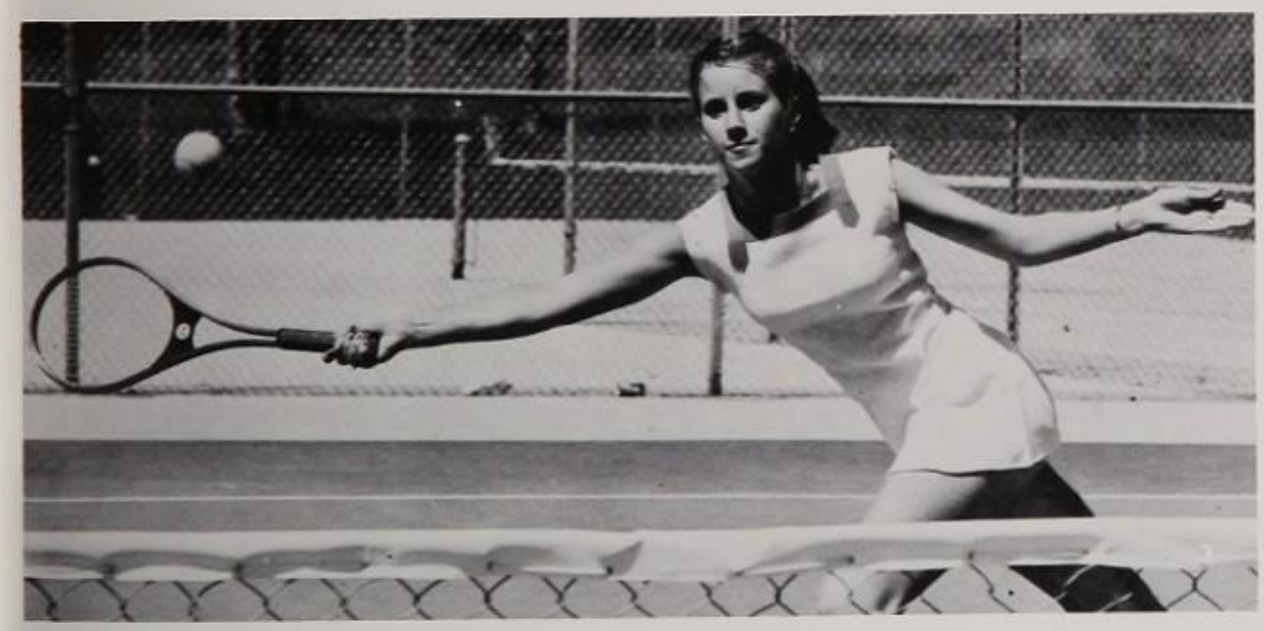
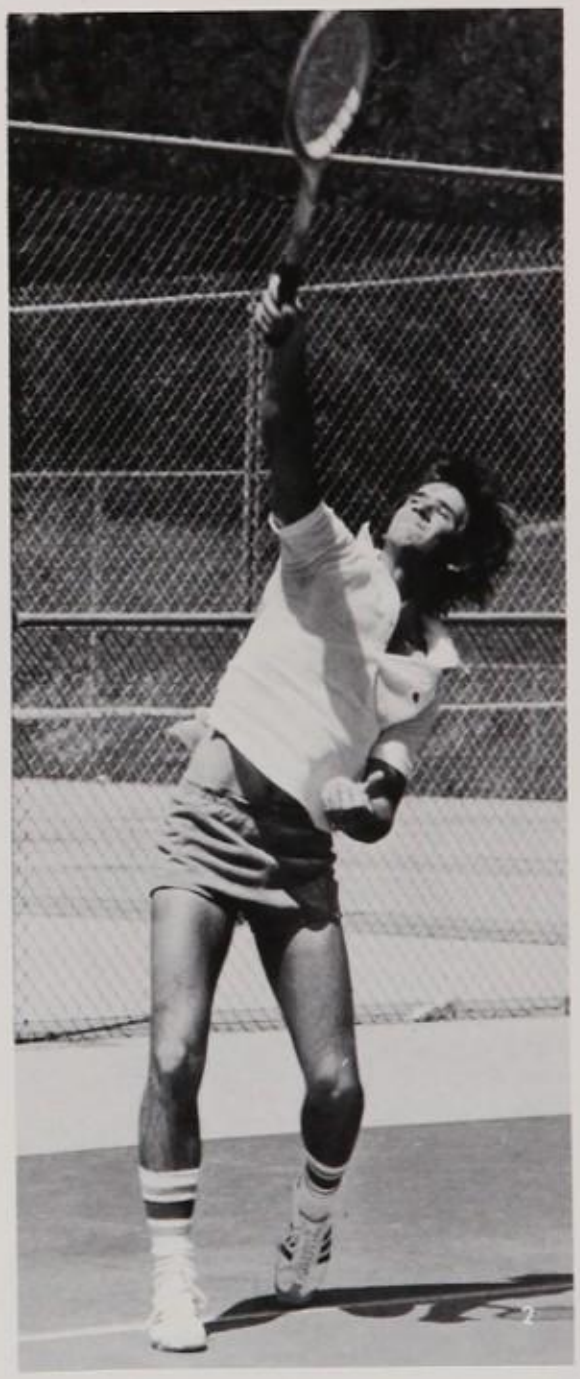
Standouts of the Boys' Tennis Team were Randy Drechsel (A-Singles), Chris Coleman, Keith Boyd, and Jerry Webb (A — Doubles).

Top girls were DeeAnn Krieger (A — Singles), Katye Scarborough, and Sherry Harkrider (A — Doubles).

The netters finished with a Third Place overall in the District. Coach Dorothy Gray was pleased with her teams' performances.





(1) Boys' Team: (Bottom) Tony Visage, Ben Bush, Todd Daughtery, Larry Lynch, Scott Blackburn, Kevin Murray; (Top) Tracy Eldridge, Sam Watson, Randy Drechsel, Chris Coleman, Jerry Webb, Winston Layne, Keith Boyd. (2) "Just think, after this serve, I can go lay out by the pool," dreams Jerry Webb. (3) "Yes, folks, I have a beautiful form," smirks Katye Scarborough. (4) "If I miss this shot, Ms. Gray will unstring me!" worries Randy Drechsel.

Baseball "Zaps" Zone

With an experienced Junior-Senior team, Coach Mike Hays, in his third year at Hills, led his team to the Zone Play-Offs.

Putting together an 8-4 record for the regular season was not an easy trip. With strong pitching and good defense, the Highlanders made a habit of rallying in late innings to win important games against O. D. Wyatt, Dunbar, and Paschal.

As the season progressed, the team banded together with the desire to win the first district championship since 1976. When the Highlanders bats came alive against teams like Poly (17-5), it looked as if the dreams might come true.

Yet when all was looking bright, the defense dropped out and many of the following games were plagued with costly errors.

The team did earn a berth in the Zone Play-Offs. But the powerful Yellow Jackets beat the Highlanders in the third game of a two-out-of-three series.

Many returning juniors will make the Highlanders a contender for the District Championship next year.

The Junior Varsity and the Freshmen posted 10-6 and 6-5 district records, respectively.

(1) Co-Captain Don Kitchens displays catching skills as he guns down an important base runner.

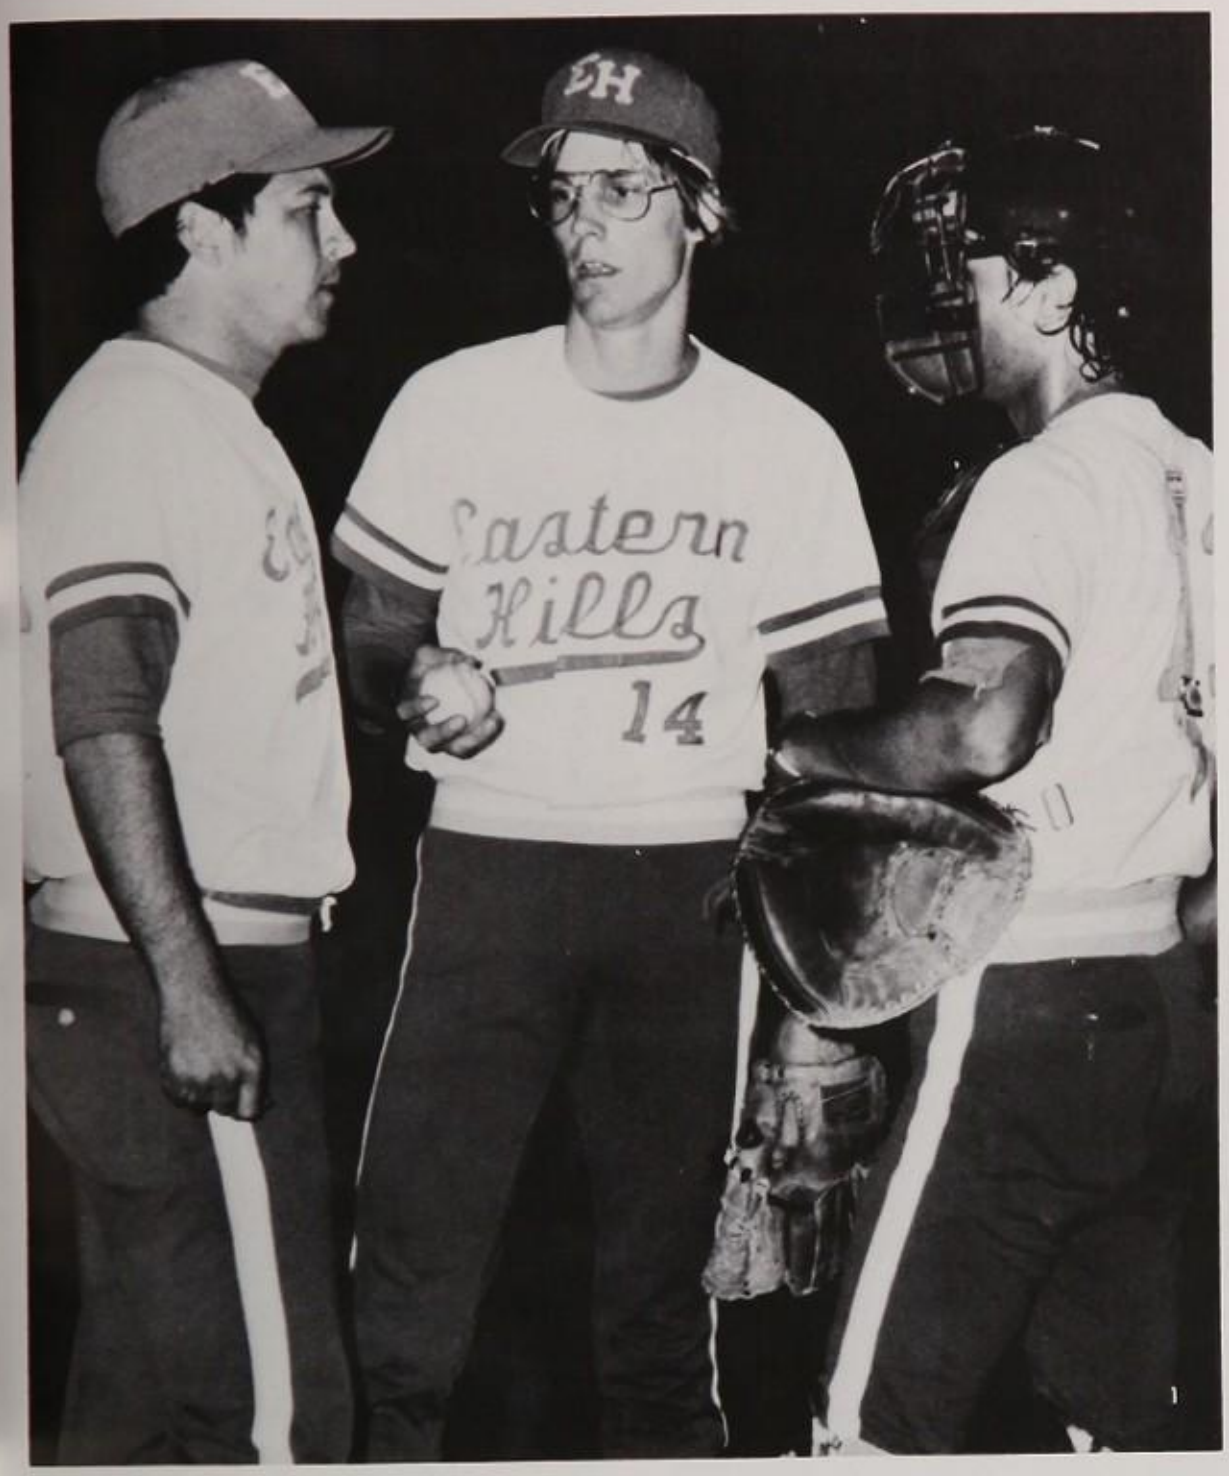
(3) Brent McClure screams to Don Kitchen, "Get your catching gear off my foot!" (4) After an important District win, the Highlanders show the spirit of winners.

Hills Makes Playoffs



(1) "Oh Coach, you always pull me before I get to have any fun!" replies Stewart Sherrill to Coach Mike Hays and Don Kitchens. (2) Kevin Thompkins congratulates Co-Captain Kelly Brock after Kelly's pitching victory over Arlington Heights in the second game of the Zone Play-Offs. (3) The Highlander Team members all agree that the girl was the prettiest one that they had ever seen, while they each try to impress her with their natural finesse and cuteness.

Ground work for success in Boy's U.I.L. Soccer was laid for years to come at Eastern Hills. The 1979 team coached by Mr. Jim Ben Watson and led by Seniors Todd Arnold, Dan Davis, and Matt Zentell, generated great enthusiasm for Soccer at Hills.

Though the Highlanders played in bad weather conditions, they turned out many good performances. Many returning lettermen on next year's squad will create a strong probability for a District Championship.

(pic. 1) "Not now!" proclaims Todd Arnold to his opponent, "We can do the Hustle after the game." (pic. 2) Front row: Robert Jacobs, Richard Ledel, Ali Moussavi, Robert Dillon, Doniell Peterson; (Middle row) Steven Lee, Randy Lockhart, Steven Gravitt, Bill Holcomb, Marcus Haynes, David Dyson; (Back row) Captain Todd Arnold, Captain Matt Zentell, Keith Ivie, Stephen Lueck, Carsten Lueck, Dixon McKay and Captain Dan Davis. (3) "!#&", I missed another one," thinks Doniell Peterson.

Soccer Is a "Supa" Success

Although an outstanding record did not belong to this year's team, Coach Livia Steingard was proud of the achievements of Eastern Hills' first U.I.L. Girls' Soccer team. Through consistent practice and effort, the girls learned the basics of the game and developed a great desire to win.

Coach Steingard hopes that, in the future, girls' soccer will gain greater recognition at Eastern Hills and that better years are ahead.

(3) Deanna Daily gasps to Jan Davidson, "Catch a whiff of what I stepped in!"

It's hard, after three years of work on the Clan staff, to say anything we haven't already said. To draw a layout we haven't already drawn. To write a cutline that hasn't been used before. That's why we have the staff do it. And we think they've all done a great job on this year's book. What can we say — except thanks.
